3. Decisions to implement the principles set forth in paragraph 1 above will be taken by common accord at the appropriate time, taking into account all the circumstances. UNQUOTE.

Murphy said we would have to study French formulation but that it did not seem to meet our specific point that there should be advance determination to prosecute our before undertaking consideration of an eventual garrison airlift. right of land access to Berlin. Alphand noted that British had already indicated that they accepted French amendments to text incorporated above.
